we'll always

As the years progress and each of us travels our separate ways, we will be looking toward the future to attain success and reach higher goals. The knowledge gained at Highland through academic classes, extra-curricular activities, and the responsibility that goes with these, will again and again be recalled for our successful journey on the unknown paths of the future.

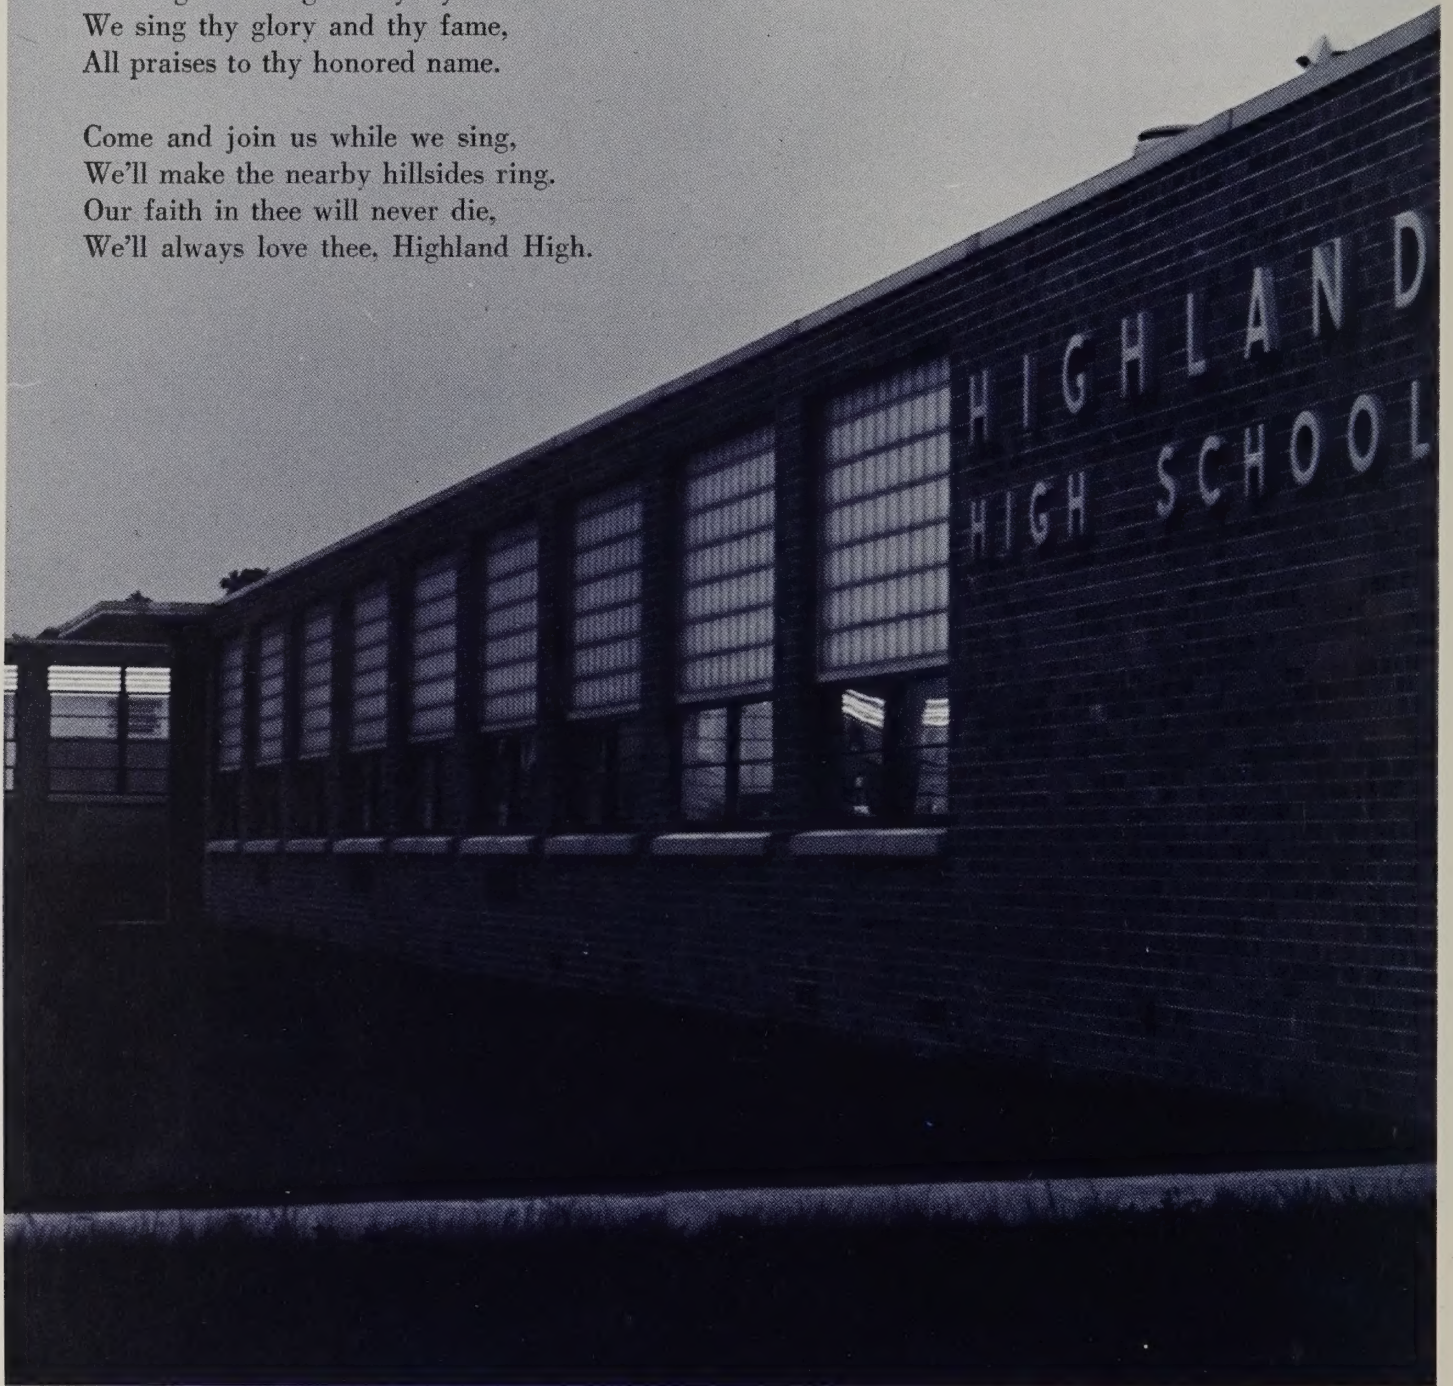

remember . . .

Our school days are like a silhouette in that all of the minute features are not clearly shown, but there is still a great enough image to be remembered. In our "Highlander" we present to you this great image that represents our high school days and the memorable events that "We'll always remember . . ."

ALMA MATER

Oh, Highland High School now to thee,
We sing our song of loyalty!
We sing thy glory and thy fame,
All praises to thy honored name.

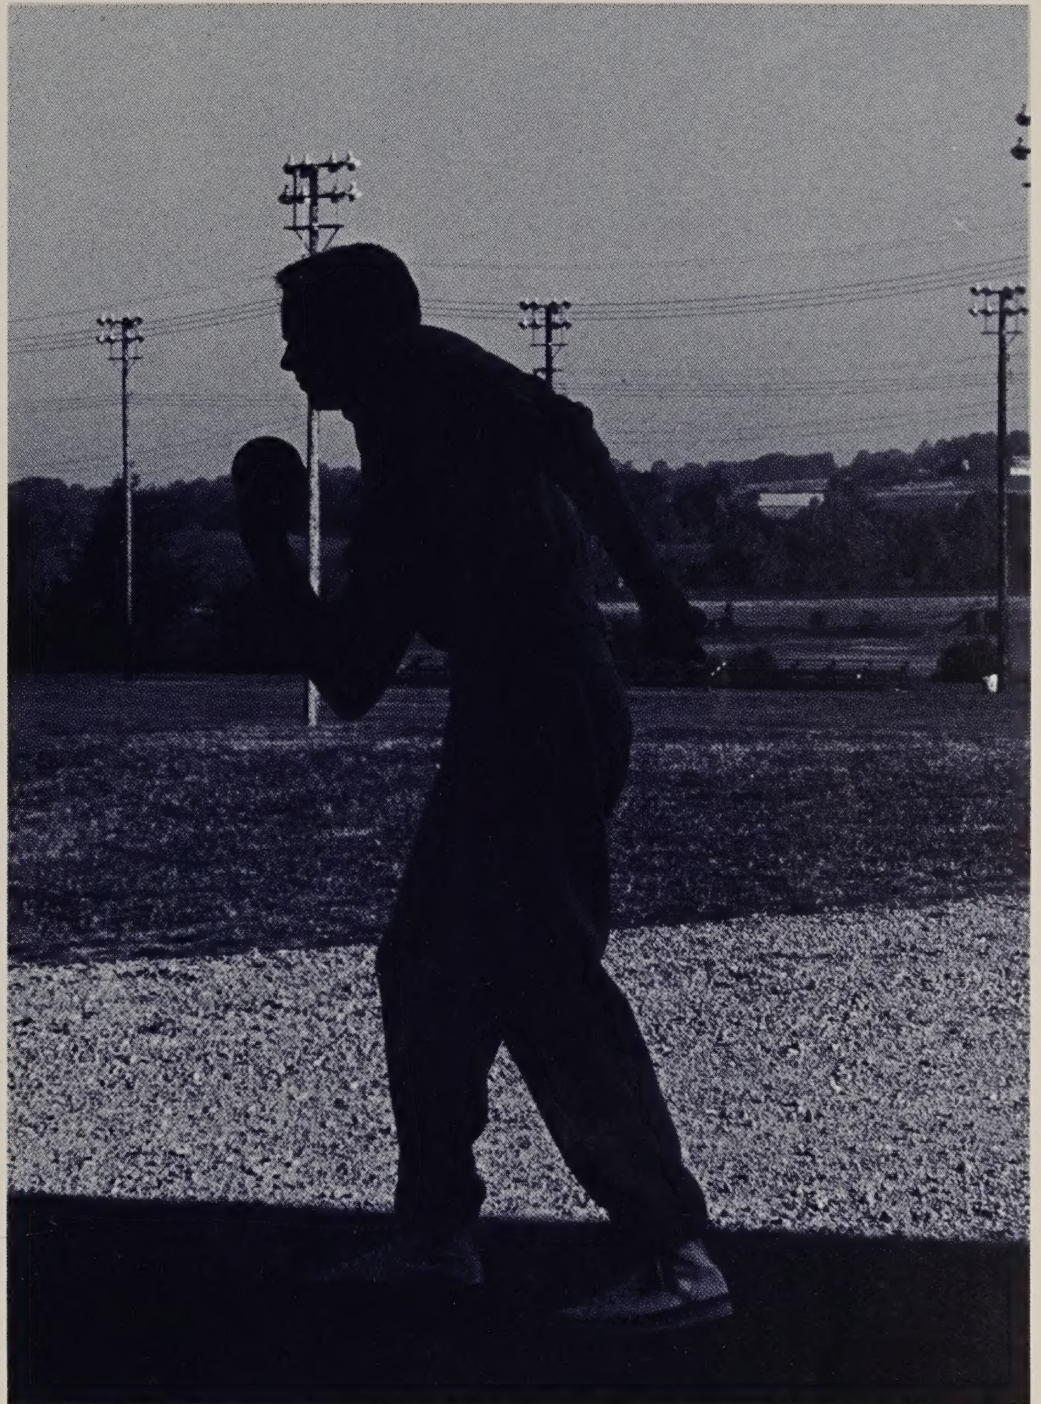

Come and join us while we sing,
We'll make the nearby hillsides ring.
Our faith in thee will never die,
We'll always love thee, Highland High.

I AM ONLY ONE

I am only one, but I am one.
I cannot do everything, but I can do something.
What I can do, I ought to do, And what I ought to do, by the Grace of God, I will do.

—Author Unknown

The coming of spring each year marks a beginning and an ending. Nature unfolds after the long dormant winter; love and life begin anew. For us students at Highland, classes are ending and studying for final exams begin. Track meets and baseball games can be seen on the first warm days of the season.

It is at the annual commencement exercises that the Seniors end a part of their life that took twelve years to build. For these students, spring marks the end of one journey and the beginning of another journey on unknown paths that will mark our future. Yes, the silhouette of spring shows both the Alpha and the Omega.

Spring Activities 1961

Row one: K. Schiele, B. Schiele, D. Gehrman. Row two: Coach Whitsel, H. Hildebrand, R. Pellett, D. Smith, A. Smith.

Dick Sponseller again earned blue ribbons in the pole vaulting competitions and Dan Connors copped honors in the high jumping events. Both placed in the county and district meets.

For the second consecutive year the Highland track team has had to settle for third in the county. During the 1961 season the Highland Cindermen placed in many of the events, but they were not able to accumulate enough points for a top team score.

At the signal of the gun, the girls sprinted to the finish line, adding points for their class.

It was "On your mark! Get Set! Go!" as each class vied for points.

May Day, initiated by the Student Council two years ago, promotes clean competition and good sportsmanship among all Highlanders. Each participant vies for points for his class. The class with the highest total wins the trophy. Many of the activities are hilarious events which provide laughter and fun for all.

The camera shutter snaps on the banquet given in honor of the Seniors.

This year's Prom theme was "Drifting and Dreaming." The University Club of Akron, beautifully decorated in a Spring theme, was the location for the banquet and dance. A movie, bowling at Riviera Lanes, and a good breakfast at the school completed this Junior-Senior event.

After the banquet, dancing to the music of Emil Hess was enjoyed by all.

Highland wins Medina County ROAD-E-O

Highland's driver training students have always scored high in the Medina County driver's ROAD-E-O.

In the 1961 contest Jim Klesack and Pat Buettner received the trophy for the best drivers as a team. Pat Eckleberry won first place in the girls division and Jim Klesack won first place in the boys division. Jim then went on to win sixth place in the class for boy drivers in the State contest.

Mr. Harmon, Pat Eckleberry, Pat Buettner, and Jim Klesack discuss the ROAD-E-O events in which they placed.

Senior Awards Assembly honors outstanding students.

The Senior Awards Assembly is an annual event honoring the seniors for their achievements during their high school days. They are presented to the student body as an entire group before their final graduation day.

The Seniors are assembled to receive awards for their outstanding accomplishments in their four years of high school.

The Class of '61 graduates.

Mr. Bonds, president of Baldwin-Wallace College, presented a challenge to the Seniors in his commencement address. He gave them a Chemistry equation to follow throughout life.

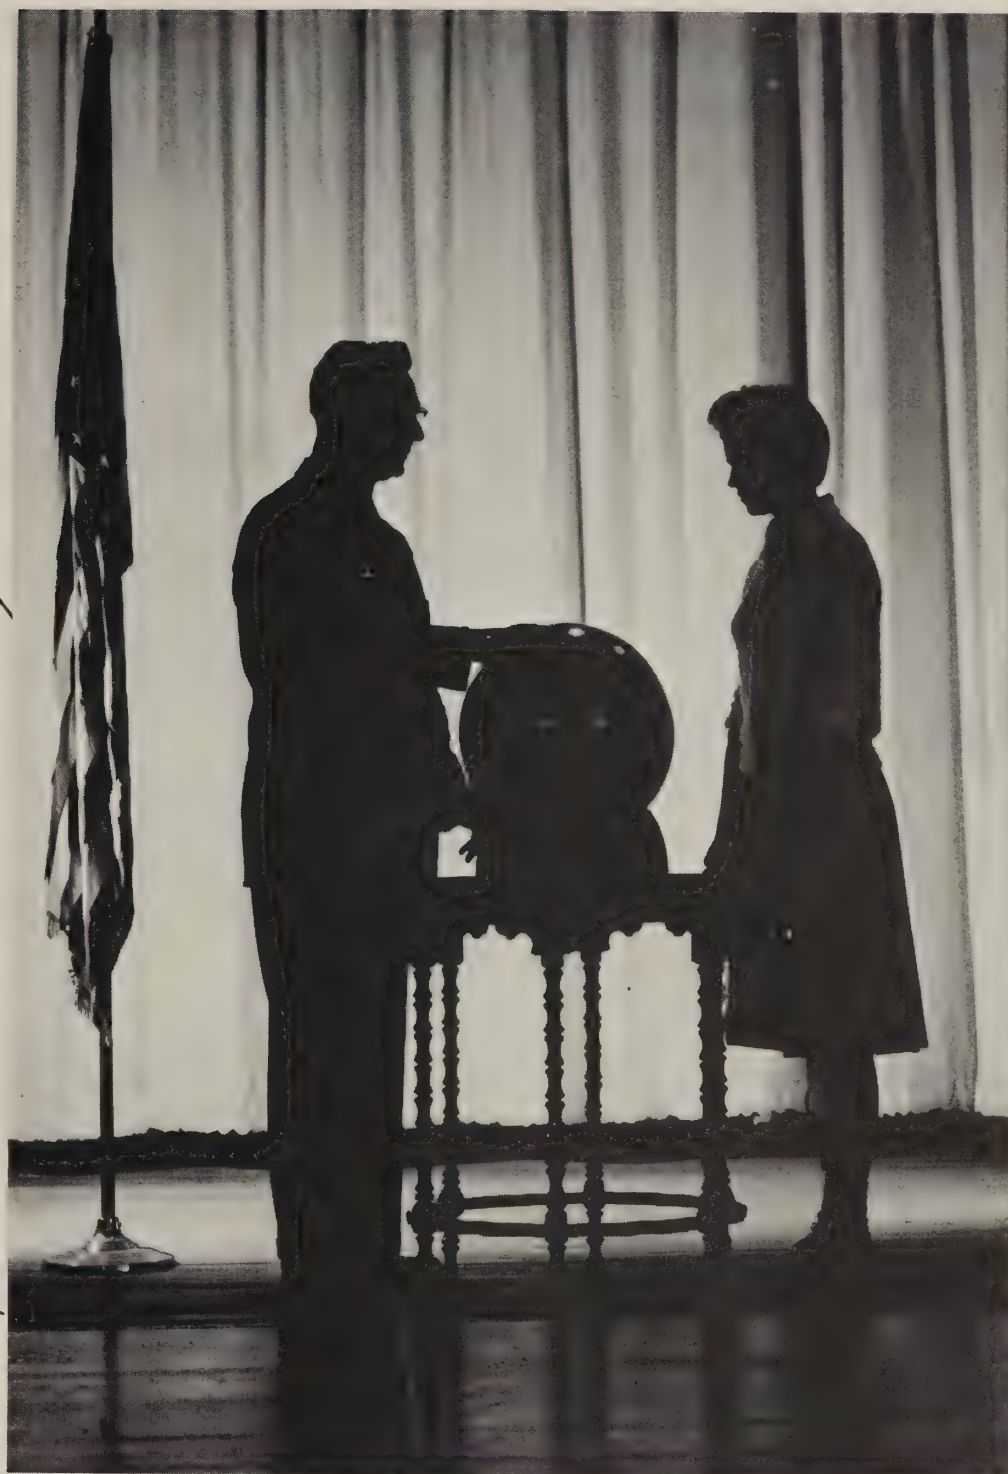

Sue Taylor, valedictorian of the Class of '61 presents her address to the Seniors and audience.

Mr. Kaufman, president of the school board, presents a diploma to one of the members of the 1961 class.

The seniors await the big event.

To the seniors, commencement marks an ending and beginning. They are ending a life that took twelve years to complete, but the best yet lies on the road to the future.

The men and women on the following pages were our counsellors in this past year as we strove to solve and understand the problems presented to us. They have played an important part in our academic and social learning. Their guidance in these fields will play an important part in the lives we lead. May their influence be a guiding light that we'll always remember

FREEDOM

Our ideas and ideals survive us far longer than our wealth and possessions. The great buildings of Greece and Rome have disappeared from the face of the earth or are in ruins, but the philosophies of Aristotle, Plato and Socrates still hold sway wherever men gather for intelligent conversation and debate. The price of freedom is high. Freedom is not a goal to be achieved nor is it a haven of rest for the weary. We cannot ride to it in luxury and ease; we cannot relax and enjoy it. Its rewards are those of a difficult task accomplished, a battle won, the attaining of a peak after traversing difficult and risky terrain. It is the rest of a peaceful mind and weary body after a job well and conscientiously done. Freedom is for strong, willing, courageous and fearless men, secure in their convictions.

The forces of darkness are joining hands on every side against everything for which freedom stands. If we are to hold onto this freedom, we need to enter into the battle with all our enthusiasm, and all our heart, realizing what infinite honor it is to be living and engaged in the battle today.

Levin O. Vermillion

SUCCESSFUL LIVING

Theodore Roosevelt once pointed out to a group of students at graduation exercises that everyone has a dual character of obligation in life. First you must be efficient and next, and equally, you have to be decent and straight. The one thing that must be avoided is a division of our people into two camps: first, the camp of those who know and can do things, but who do them crookedly and, second, the camp of those who have excellent purposes but no power to achieve them.

Success in our changing and stormy world is dependent upon citizens who possess these qualities of efficiency and integrity. There is also a need for nonconformity mixed with vision, sincerity, confidence, and the willingness and ability to cooperate wholeheartedly with others.

Seniors, your future is not an easy one, but a changing and challenging one. The greater the challenge, the greater the success which results in a greater and more dynamic individual. There is no easy road to true success, but hard, well planned, and organized work. Plan well, work hard, and form the habit of open-mindedness — of never being content to think and work the way we thought and worked yesterday or last month or last year. Be creative, think for yourself, but be thorough in your thinking and constructive in your conclusions.

Richard W. Chaffee

Wilma Anderson (Oberlin College, A.B.; Western Reserve University, M.A in Languages) is the first and second year Latin teacher. Her first year Latin class is seen here concentrating on the history of ancient Rome.

Richard Herold (Ashland, B.S. and B.M. in Music) is the director of the school chorus and glee club, and boy's glee. He directs the four ensembles at Highland and has initiated a dance band this year. The shutter snapped on the dance band during one of its weekly sessions.

Mr. Herold

Mary Lou Ludwig

Mrs. Ludwig

Mary Lou Ludwig (Western Reserve University, B.A. in Education) teaches first and fourth year English classes and Speech. She directs the Junior and Senior plays and the entry for the One-Act Play Contest. She is also a Junior Advisor. The characters seen here are witches from a scene given in her Senior English class of the Shakespearian play, Macbeth.

"Now stop talking!"

"The more you practice what you know, the more you know what to practice."

Beverly Melrose (Kent State University, B.A. in Arts) heads the art department at our school. She is seen here discussing the painting of one of her students. Her students each year win many awards in the art exhibitions in which they enter.

Mrs. Melrose

Mrs. Myers

Jean Myers (Kent State University, B.S. in Education) teaches first and second year Spanish and first and second year typing. She is a Senior advisor, the annual advisor, and the advisor for the secretarial assistants. She is helping a member of the first year typing class.

"Eyes on your copy . . . begin."

"Let's get into homeroom on time."

Mr. Neimeir

Don Niemeier (Peru State Teacher's College, B.S. in Education; Illinois State College, M.S. in Education) teaches first year algebra and plane geometry. He is also a Freshman advisor. As the camera flashed, he was showing helpful instruments that geometry students use.

Les Norman (Ohio State University, B.A. in Math) teaches second year algebra, general math, and solid geometry and trigonometry. He is a Freshman advisor. The shutter snapped as he was demonstrating the use of the slide rule to his Algebra II class.

"On this graph, I'll have to fudge this line in here, and plug this 'x' in over here."

"Put away that comb."

Max Schindler (Bowling Green State University) teaches driver training. He is the varsity basketball coach, lineman football coach, and a Junior advisor. The camera found his driver's training class as some of the students learned the correct method of parallel parking.

Mr. Norman

Mr. Schindler

Mr. Schleider

Al Schleider (Washington-Jefferson; Kent State University, B.S. in Education) teaches first and third year English. He is the advisor of the school paper and is also a Junior advisor. Mr. Schleider is seen as he pauses during a class discussion.

"Tomorrow you will have a 'you know what.'"

"All right, a . . . any other comments?"

Jerry Sigrist (Ashland College, B.S. in Education) teaches world history and American government. He is also the reserve basketball coach and a Sophomore advisor. The camera caught a glimpse of the American government class as they discuss our system of government.

Mr. Sigrist

"Just what Jerry Sigrist"

Margaret South (George Peabody College, M.A. in Library Science; West Virginia University, A.B. in History) is our very efficient school librarian. She is also a Freshman advisor. Her willingness to help the students is seen here as she helps a student use the atlas.

"There's too much talking over in that corner."

"Hitherto for . . ."

Dick Tanner (Ohio University, B.S. in Education) teaches general science and is also a Freshman advisor. He is showing his general science class the interior of a volcano.

Mrs. South

Mr. Tanner

Mrs. Troup

Rachael Troup (Ohio State University, B.S. in Home Economics) heads the homemaking department. She teaches homemaking and is a Senior advisor. She also advises the Y-Teen Club. She and one of her classes are seen here preparing Christmas packages of their baked goods.

"All right, don't you kids have anything to do?"

"You, Humpty"

Mr. Wagner

Clarence Wagner (Ohio State University, B.S. in Education) teaches shop math and first and second year mechanical drawing. He is also a Freshman advisor. His mechanical drawing class is seen here as they work on a problem.

Mrs. Weigle

Mrs. Weigle

Rowina Weigle (Western Reserve University, A.B. in Education) heads the science department. She teaches chemistry, physics, and biology. She is the F.T.A. advisor and also is a Sophomore advisor. One of her biology classes is seen here as they view the slides on the Bio-scope.

"Boys and girls, get out a half sheet of paper."

"So I says to him, I says, 'Andu,' I says, 'look, boy,' I says . . ."

Grace Wolfersberger (Otterbein, B.S. in Education) is the girl's physical education teacher and also teaches Sophomore health. She is the G.A.A. advisor, Freshman advisor, and cheerleading advisor. One of her physical education classes is doing the "jackknife".

Miss Wolfersberger

*Best teacher

Mrs. Weigle*

Mrs. Webster

Lola Webster is the office secretary. She is always willing to help and has a kind smile for everyone. She is seen here at work doing one of the many jobs that makes our high school run more efficiently.

"May I have your attention please? Will the following students . . ."

"At ease."

Roy Gienke (Kent State University, B.A. in Arts) is our school's guidance counselor. He is also the principal at the junior high. He is seen here during one of his counselling sessions.

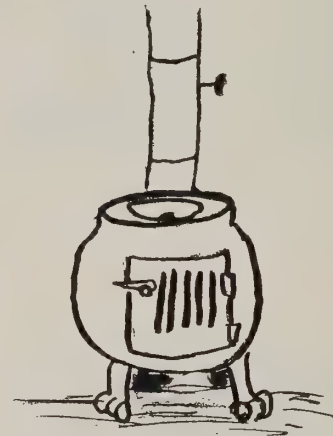

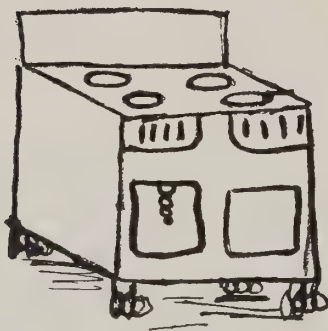

Mr. Gienke

Our Janitors who care for our school.

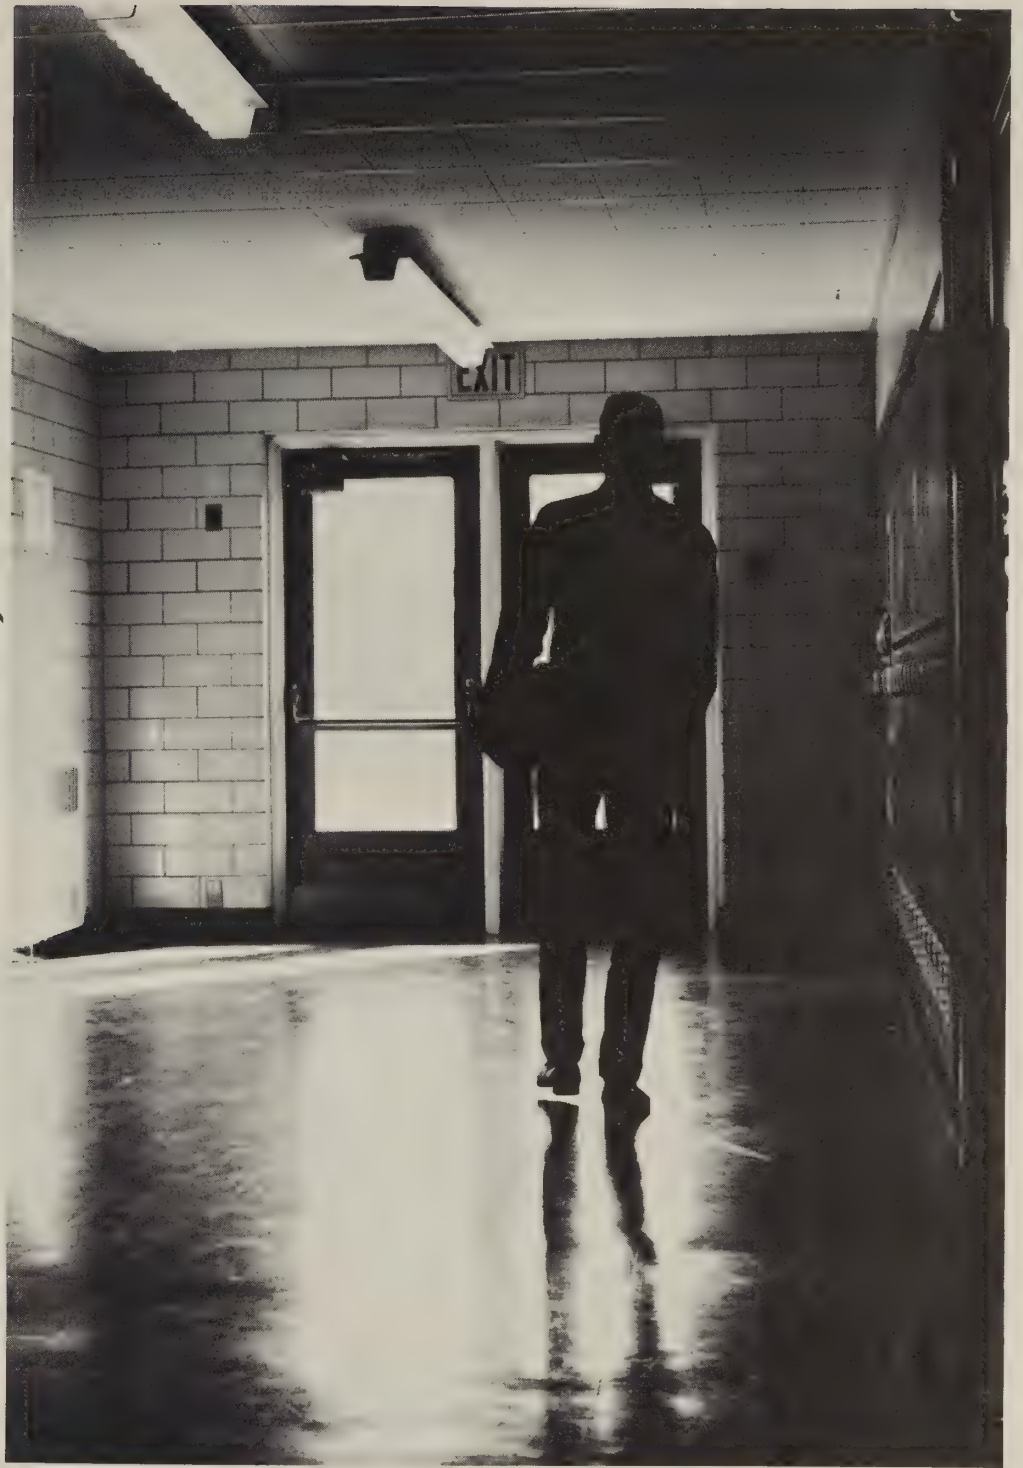

Mr. Brunskill, our custodian; Mrs. Shirey, our janitress, and Jim Farkas, who assists them, are seen both during and after school working to keep our school neat and attractive. Our hats are doffed to these people who do such a fine job.

Our Cooks who daily prepare our nutritious meals.

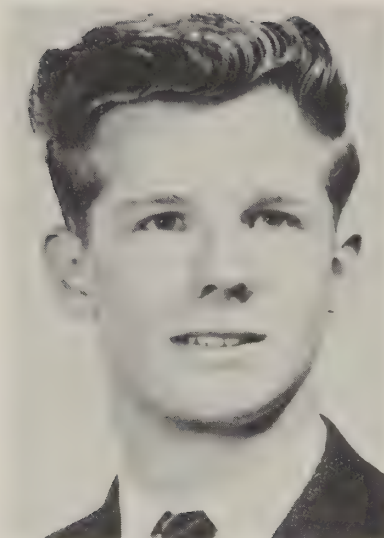

With the help of the students buying more lunches, the cooks have been able to prepare more varied meals. We hope they will continue to make our meals as pleasant as they have this year. Mrs. Kraus is in charge of these women, and to her we give our thanks.

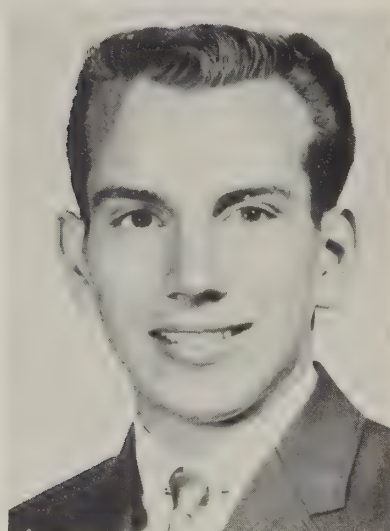

Once more let's return to the halls of Highland High. Re-enter the classrooms you knew as a student. Remember the knowledge you gained or the laughter shared with fellow students. It was in these same classrooms that the organizations held meetings to bring culture our way so that our personalities could grow and develop. On the next pages are the familiar faces we greeted each day as our friends and companions. All of this was part of the classes that we'll always remember . . .

Highland's scholars deserve praise.

A salute goes to these students who attained a 3.0 scholastic average or higher for one semester. Every six weeks our honor students are designated as honor roll members if a 3.5 average to a 4.0 average has been attained, or as merit roll members if a 3.0 to a 3.5 average has been attained.

Sherry Bodley, Carol Petroc, Helen Nell, and Judy Henry scored a straight "A" average at least one six week period of the semester. Absent: Jolan Brown.

The gavel is raised and the meeting is called to order. This silhouette is typical of many organizations, including the ones at Highland. Our groups do not stop there, but go on to construct stronger foundations on which to build better organizations. The time spent on projects and in activities build a strong fellowship among the members. The knowledge gained, the laughter shared, and the fun enjoyed, we'll always remember

Organizations

Student Council governs Highland.

"We, the student body of Highland High, in order to establish a better relationship between students and faculty members, afford training in citizenship, and aid in building a sincere respect for the ideals and codes of our society . . ." This is the goal of the student council, the student governing body of Highland. The council sponsors two formal dances, stunt night, the carnival, pep meetings, and sock-hops. This year they also revised the constitution, bought a hi-fi record-player and records, sold Highland-sweatshirts, and began a program to inform the students of the council's activities.

G. A. A. provides for

The Girl's Athletic Association promotes physical activities for girls at Highland. During the course of the year, the girls participated in competitive bowling, swimming, a skit for a pep meeting, stunt night, the annual G. A. A. vs. Senior boy basketball game and they went Christmas caroling. The main objective is to bring girls together who learn to co-operate and work harmoniously with each other in their athletic endeavors. The G. A. A. advisor is Miss Wolfersberger.

"He's just too tired to move."

Take some zany Highlanders, throw in a couple of stunt books and let them display their talents. The results are the many hilarious acts presented by members from classes and organizations in the annual Stunt Night program. This year the Sophomore Class won first; the Junior class won second place; Varsity-H won third place, and the N. H. S. came last with fourth place.

Mixed Ensemble

The ensembles are composed of students especially interested in group harmonizing. They meet during study halls or after school to learn music to present to the public. The ensembles often entertain at school meetings, county events, and they are a solid part of our two concerts. These students enter county and state solo-and-ensemble contests and always score with a high rating. Many hours of hard work are put into the songs as the students strive for perfection in pleasing melodies.

Chorus

and

Glee Club

Musical voices are harmoniously heard from the band room. This is a place of fun and accomplishment. This is the meeting place of the chorus and glee. They sing a variety of musical selections, mainly for their own enjoyment. They are directed by Mr. Herold. They present a Winter and Spring Concert in the respective seasons. Hard work and perseverance goes into the blending of musical songs by this vocal group.

Majorettes

This year our majorettes were led by Joen Ardy. They did a wonderful job performing with the band at half-time during the football season. They also worked with the band at various other activities.

Standing: K. Pay, B. Khoenle, C. Becks, K. Finding, G. Gabriel, and head majorette, J. Ardy.

Band Council

The Band Council is made up of the officers and the right guides of marching band. It was formed to solve any problems that may arise at any time. The officers are Roger Ford, president; David Cobb, vice-president; Cathy Frase, secretary; and Jack Wagner, treasurer. Mr. Eckart is the Council's advisor.

Head majorette, Joen Ardy; director, Mr. Eckart; and announcer, Roger Ford are checking their signals before the half-time show.

Our Band

The band is the instrumental half of our music department. Students from all grades, who have the desire and ability to play an instrument, are eligible for both marching and concert band. The marching band provides half-time shows at all football games, marches in the Medina County Band-O-Rama, parades, and plays at the Medina County Fair. The concert band gives a winter and spring concert. There are smaller groups within the concert band including ensembles, pep band, and dance band.

Pine boughs, Christmas trees, paper snowballs, and snowflakes were the main ingredients for the "Sno-Ball", the annual band dance. Added to this for spice was the crowning of King Roger Ford and Queen Sherry Bodley who reigned over our dance. All of this was mixed in well to provide a festive event to the holiday.

Remember when the snow began to fall and everyone could hear the sound of music in the air? Yes, it was our vocal and instrumental department tuning up for the annual Winter Concert. The chorus, glee, ensembles, and band worked many hard hours under the direction of Mr. Herold and Mr. Eckart to present the fine concert, enjoyed by all who attended.

Mike Galbraith and Cheryl Schmelzer; Lance Copperman and Trudy Schemmel; Walt Gray and Judy Henry.

One of the most joyous and festive events of the year is the Annual Homecoming Weekend. Everyone's spirits are high and fluttered at the thought of a victorious game, followed the next evening by a semi-formal dance. There's excitement in the crisp fall air as everyone's fancies focus on this gay weekend.

coming Weekend. . .

Our Homecoming queen, Vivian Reeves, presided over the game and continued her reign through the beautifully decorated dance the next evening. Her crowning, presented by the 1961 football captain, Don Hoert, was an illustrious highlight of the evening.

These girls added charm and sparkle to our Homecoming Weekend. They are Trudy Schemmel, sophomore attendant; Carole Marrek, senior attendant; Sharon Cooper, senior attendant; Queen Vivian; Sherry Bodley, senior attendant; Judy Henry, junior attendant; and Cheryl Schmelzer, freshman attendant.

The Queen and her court pause a moment during the festivities.

Varsity "H" is our letterman's club.

The purpose of this club is to encourage athletic participation in all sports. To be eligible you must earn at least one "H" in some sport at Highland. The boys planned a swimming party and purchased green and yellow letterman jackets this year.

First Row: Mr. Beckman, Advisor; J. Kosman; J. Girman, Secretary; L. Tucker, Vice-President; D. Hoert, President; W. Gray; M. Galbraith; R. Bentley, Treasurer. Second Row: J. Klesack, T. Hood, R. Plute, D. Provchy,

Return to the crisp fall nights and hear the rhythmic counts of the football squad mingled with the drum cadences and the tense expectation of a "battle". Once more hear the hoarse cheerleaders as they forge the crowd into a mighty army to help the team over the goal for the victory. As the winter months approach, take your seat again in the gymnasium and hear the sound of ball bouncing the floor as the teams warm up for the contest. The cheers and songs of the cheerleaders fill the gym in the final moments before the whistle sounds to begin the game. A few moments later, the team is down the floor, working the plays, and . . . swish! . . . on to victory. Yes, all of this, we'll always remember

Down through the ages, football has been accredited in building men from boys. Here at Highland football has touched four main areas: Mental, Social, Spiritual, and Physical. The mental attitude of the football squad was that of a winning team. Win, lose, or draw, the boys were always in there, fighting to win. I feel that the boys socially conducted themselves as gentlemen, both on and off the field. This is a sign of a true man. Spiritually, the fellows were humble in victory and proud in defeat. This is something that should be understood by more. Look at the boys and the type of football they played, and the physical aspect of the four points is self-explanatory. As coach, I feel proud of the fact that I was part of the 1961 football squad. To the five seniors of this squad, I wish the best of luck in whatever you do. If you work as hard at being a success as you did in football, success will come. And remember: "Workers are winners; winners are workers."

Hornets

Sting.

The progress of the game is intently followed by our coaches, Mr. Beckman and Mr. Schindler.

Our Hornets sting again and again to move the pigskin a few yards closer to the goal.

Blocking sled is completed.

Highland's athletes worked just as hard off of the field as they did on the field. Shown here are some of the boys who worked to build a seven-man blocking sled. This is just one of the projects on which our athletes worked this year. They also sold fire extinguishers, participated in "Stunt Night", and became "cheerleaders" for the Re-treads (faculty) vs. "W H L O Wonders" game.

Physical Fitness is stressed

In keeping with President Kennedy's "Physical Fitness Program", Highland has begun a program of its own. The main objective of J. F. K.'s program is to build good muscle tone. Our program has two main objectives: muscle building, consisting of weight lifting and calisthenics; muscle tone, consisting of agility drills and wrestling. The girls of Highland have also begun a program. Their program is divided into four main areas: calisthenics, weight reducing, and team and individual sports. Mr. Beckman and Miss Wolfersberger are the advisors of these programs.

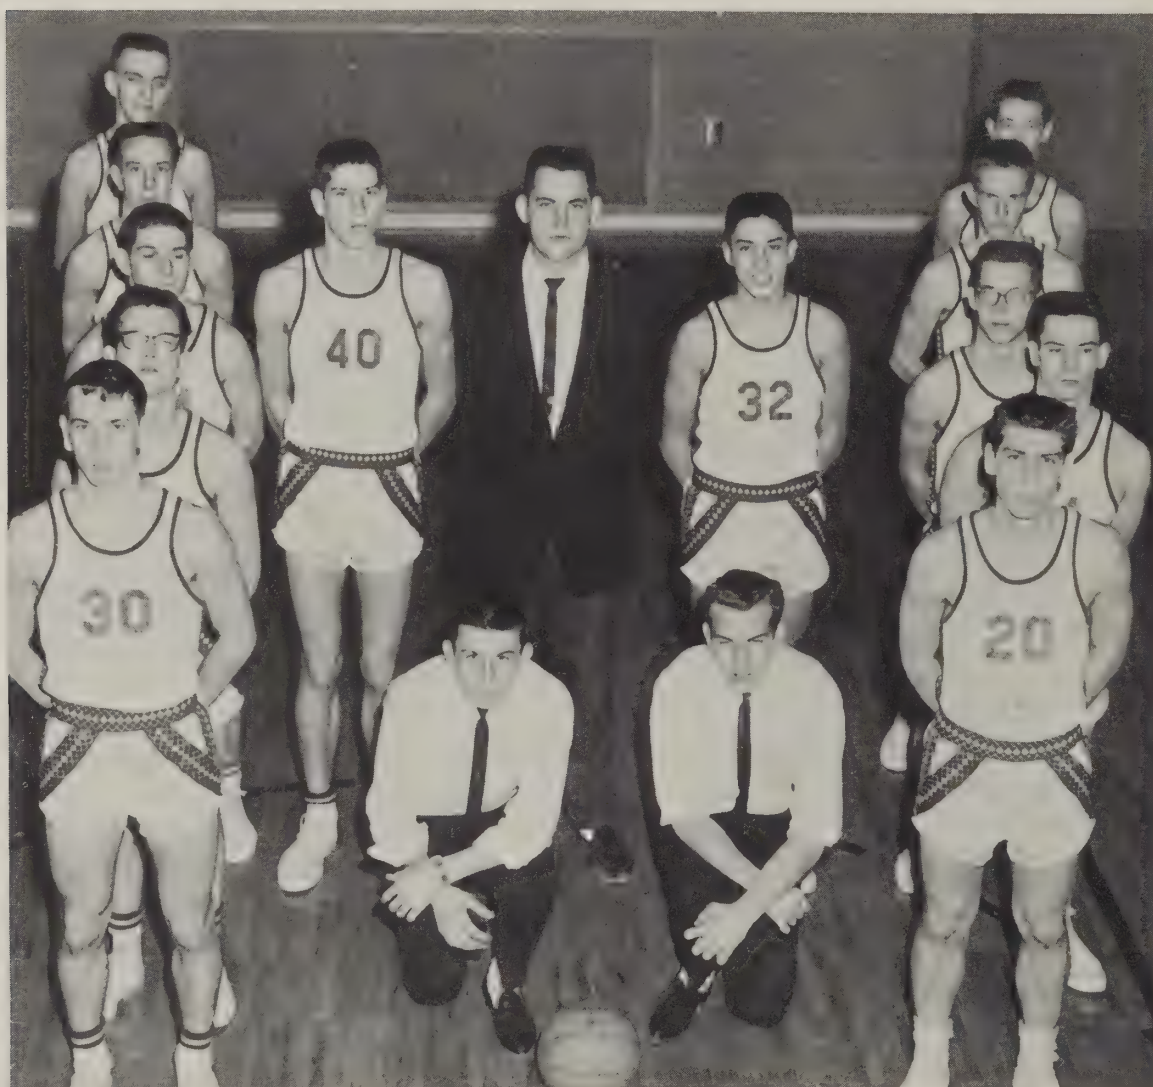

Highland's Cagers

People usually measure a basketball team by its win-loss record. Our team would be unfairly judged if they were measured in this way. The season's success was shown by the hard work and desire to win that was displayed by the team in the games. This year's team will be the yard stick with which we shall measure the success of succeeding teams.

Junior Varsity

The junior varsity is composed of sophomores and juniors. The knowledge of the game, the teamwork, and the sportsmanship that is learned help to prepare the boys for our varsity squad. These boys practice after school every evening to prepare themselves for their weekly game.

Freshman

This team is composed of freshman boys who are interested in the game of basketball. Mr. Kemp, their coach, strives to teach the boys the basic fundamentals of the game. Their weekly schedule includes games with other Medina County Freshman Teams.

Sitting: B. Searcey, T. Stuver, J. Schnelzer, P. Wooding, B. Swank, B. Pritt. Standing: T. Augustyne, J. Haydn, G. Bury, R. Rush, R. Thomas, E. Reeves, T. Berg, T. Grimm, Mr. Kemp, R. Jolly.

Our Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders are composed of two juniors, and four seniors. They are: M. Davis, N. Snyder, C. Marrek, J. Collins, C. Petroc and S. Cooper.

Our cheerleaders play a major role in building school spirit at Highland. Their pep and enthusiasm are a vital factor in making the student body "one". They are responsible for planning pep meetings and decorating the field and gymnasium for special events besides their main duty of perfecting their cheers by practice, practice, and more practice.

It matters not what tools we use,
But that we use them well;
For some must write and some must print,
While others buy and sell.
And some must preach and some must play,
And some must plot and plan.
But this rule holds for one and all,
Do just the best you can.

Dianne
 you may be happy because graduation is Tuesday
 but I can tell you now
 I hate to see you and your class leave and I intend to cry all the way through your faithful page for March but
 Good Luck always
